

Animal Sanctuary Round-up

All of the following sanctuaries are operated by vegans and are always in need of financial support, and may need volunteers too.

Algernon Trust Animal Sanctuary and Wildlife Rescue

www.algernontrust.org.uk

This sanctuary has been run for 18 years by vegan, Jane Shepherd, who devotes 24 hours a day to the rescue and care of animals. Jane spends weekends attending fetes and fairs to raise money to add to the membership fees and donations which enable her pay for food, litter and vets bills.

Brinsley Animal Rescue

<http://brinsleyanimalrescue.org/>

Run by volunteers and managed by vegans Jon and Beth, Brinsley Animal Rescue is a charity run on vegan values and does not exploit animals for food, profit or entertainment. 100% of the money raised for the Charity goes directly into helping animals by paying for food, housing, treatment and vets bills.

The Farm Animal Sanctuary

www.thefarmanimalsanctuary.co.uk
01386 832640

The Farm Animal Sanctuary has been run by Janet Taylor for over 20 years in Evesham, Worcestershire with over 500 rescued sheep, birds, pigs, donkeys and other animals. Individual animals can be sponsored from just £10 per year.

Brook Farm Animal Sanctuary

www.brook-farm.org.uk

This sanctuary is in Raunds Northamptonshire. Although the sanctuary focuses on farmed animals they don't turn anyone away and have cats, dogs, hedgehogs and a baby deer as well as cows, pigs, sheep, turkeys and chickens (always looking to re-home). Susannah, Clive and Rosie who run the sanctuary are all vegan.

Farplace Animal Rescue

Tel: 0191 4204052
www.farplace.org.uk

Based in the Durham Dales, Farplace have a no-kill policy. All staff are either veggie or vegan. They rescue and re-home all sorts of animals at the sanctuary, from unwanted and mistreated pets to ex-farm animals such as ex-battery hens, sheep and turkeys, as well as wildlife.

FRIEND Farmed Animal Rescue

<http://www.friendsanimalrescue.org.uk/>
01622 871617

Established in the early 1990s, FRIEND is as a permanent home for abused, unwanted and orphaned farm animals. Currently, around 150 animals run freely and communally over the 10 acre site, located in the heart of the Kent countryside FRIEND runs wholly on donations which help pay for feed, medical bills, and essential equipment.

Farm Animal Rescue Sanctuary

www.farmanimalrescue.org.uk

The Farm Animal Rescue Sanctuary was established 1988 and is based in Wolverton, Warwickshire.

There they care for over 800 animals, looked after by volunteers. All fundraising time is volunteered and there are no offices to maintain and no directors to pay - 100% of your donation will go to their animals to feed, shelter and to provide medical care. They also run an adoption scheme.

Folly Wildlife Rescue Trust

www.follywildliferescue.org.uk
01892 750865

Set up by Dave and Annette Risley, Folly Wildlife Rescue Trust is based in Eridge Green, Kent and specialises in the hand-rearing of mammals and birds.

Every year thousands of animals are admitted to the sanctuary, and as many as possible are eventually returned to the wild. They operate an 'adopt a hedgehog' scheme as well as a supporters group to care for those that are too badly injured to be returned to the wild.

Hillfields Animal Sanctuary

www.hillfields-animal-sanctuary.com
0121 445 3828

Set up over 30 years ago by Linda Tudor in Blackwell near Bromsgrove, Worcestershire where she cares for over 300 former farmed animals and unwanted domestic pets, including horses, goats, pigs, sheep, chickens, dogs, cats, ducks, birds, and even a 28 year old cow. They run an "adopt an animal" scheme as well as having regular open days.

Hillside Animal Sanctuary

www.hillside.org.uk 01603 736200

Hillside is based in Frettenham, near Norwich and was founded in 1995. They care for over 900 animals, most of whom have been rescued from the factory farming industry. Hillside has been involved in exposing the conditions for animals on monitored "Freedom Food" farms. They also operate an animal 'adoption' scheme.

Hugletts Wood Farm

Can be found on Facebook.
0788 404 6703

They care for over 200 animals, grow their own crops, produce compost, and operate a dedicated Cow Protection Programme.

New Life Parrot Rescue

<http://www.newlifeparrotrescue.org.uk/>
01480 390040

A non-profit organisation and registered British charity, New Life Parrot Rescue provides shelter for neglected parrots. As well as taking part in animal welfare campaigns, they also run a helpline service which aims to inform and educate people on parrot issues.

Rainbow Ark

<http://www.rainbowark.co.uk/>
07757 054 333

Located in County Durham, Rainbow Ark has been running for twenty years and is home to more than 200 animals. It is popular with children from the area, who visit to see the many dogs, Shetland ponies, canaries and goats at the sanctuary. Owner Paula Campbell never turns an animal away.

Tower Hill Stables Animal Sanctuary

www.towerhillstables.com
Set up in Essex in 1993 by Fiona Oakes, who single-handedly cares for 400 animals from shire horses to turkeys, many of whom are in need of sponsorship to cover the costs of their food and veterinary bills.

The Retreat Animal Rescue

<http://www.retreatanimalrescue.org.uk/>
01322 614247

Based in northwest Kent, The Retreat is an entirely voluntary and a not-for-profit organisation, with all the trustees and most of the volunteers being vegan. All funds raised go to the welfare of the animals that come into The Retreat's care and where possible animals are rehomed in permanent, loving homes. The Retreat operates a no-kill policy.

