

New membership fees in 2026

Membership fees help The Vegan Society to make the world more vegan. With continued support from our members, we can help more people go vegan and stay vegan to end the suffering and exploitation of animals.

For the last 10 years, we have continued to offer membership with no increase in cost; however, in this time, the costs of printing and postage have increased exponentially. Unfortunately, to ensure that membership fees continue to support our very important work and help us progress with future campaigns, we have made the decision to increase the cost of membership. The increased prices will take effect from 1 August 2026 for new memberships and existing non-direct debit membership renewals and from 1 September 2026 for existing memberships paying via direct debit.

To ensure that membership remains accessible for our existing members and any new members wishing to join:

- All memberships, with the exception of Life memberships (which are a one-off cost and will not change for existing Life members), will have the option to pay monthly or annually.
- The concession discount for Eco membership for those with a household income of less than £30,500 will remain.
- The discounted rate for Life memberships for those aged 65+ will remain.
- Youth membership will remain free until the member turns 26 years old.

The new membership fees:

Membership will be £48 annually or £4 per month.

Eco membership will be £36 annually or £3 per month.

Eco membership with concession will be £24 annually or £2 per month.

Additional membership will be £12 annually or £1 per month.

* also applicable to additional memberships attached to existing Life memberships

Youth membership will remain free until the member's 26th birthday.
