

Name: _____

A DIFFERENT PAIR OF EYES

Spend a minute looking at the photo before you write anything.

- What is the animal doing, right now, in this photo?
- What can you imagine is just outside the frame? What might they be looking at, listening to or moving towards?
- What time of day is it? How can you tell?
- What might they smell, hear or feel that we can't see in the photo?

SEE Shapes a movement around them
HEAR Sounds they can't ignore
SMELL What pulls their attention
FEEL Underfoot, in the air, on their skin
WANT Right now, more than anything
FEAR What makes them freeze or run

Sentence starters	Vocabulary
• The first thing she noticed was... • He didn't understand why... • Something in the air changed, and... • They knew, before they could explain how, that... • All that mattered, in that moment, was...	Movement – crept, bolted, froze, flinched, drifted, darted, settled. Alertness – wary, alert, tense, watchful, uneasy, still. Instinct – sensed, flinched at, pulled towards, recoiled from, drawn to.