

What is cleared and why?

See paragraph 2

Two reasons why forests are being cleared

1.

2.

What are the wider consequences? See paragraphs 4 and 5

When forests are destroyed, the climate is affected because

Research shows that biodiversity loss linked to high-meat diets is _____ times greater than that linked to plant-based diets.

Who/what is affected locally?

See paragraphs 1 and 3

Name one type of animal affected:

Name one group of people affected:

Primary forest is especially important because

The Amazon Rainforest

Where does the demand come from?

See paragraphs 2 and 5

Soya beans grown in _____ are used to feed animals living in _____.

This means that the demand for forest clearance comes from: